Since its groundbreaking on March 14, 2006, the UCF Softball Complex is where the Knights call home. The state-of-the-art facility speaks volumes for how far the program has come under the direction of head coach Renee Luers-Gillispie and where it is headed. The 600-capacity stadium is one of the finest in the American Athletic Conference and on the national scene.

The field is professionally manicured by the UCF Facilities and Operations staff and includes a covered batting pavilion, roomy dugouts, home and visitor bullpens and an outfield fence lined with palm trees.

UCF student-athletes have access to everything they need to prepare for gameday at the UCF Softball Complex. The Knights have a spacious locker room, a lounge area complete with a television, couches and chairs, an equipment room and their own training room complete with a top-notch athletic training staff.

Along with having comfortable offices for each coach, the UCF Softball Complex also has a conference room, a video room and locker rooms for both the coaching staff and for umpires. # RENEE LUERS-GILLISPIE

HEAD COACH - 16TH SEASON

Renee Luers-Gillispie enters her 16th year at the helm of the UCF softball program in 2017. Since starting the program in 2002, Gillispie has led the team to four conference championships, including the program's first regular season and conference titles in 2015. The Knights earned the program's seventh NCAA Regional bid in 2016, marking the first time in school history with three consecutive regional appearances - all of which ended in the Regional Final.

The Knights and Gillispie have a record of 562-358-1 over the last 15 years, while Gillispie owns a National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) record of 814-562-3 and an NCAA record of 767-534-3.

UCF faced its toughest slate in program history in 2016, playing 21 games against Top 25 opponents. The Knights posted 15 consecutive wins, the second-longest stretch in school history, and saw their streak of being ranked in the national polls reach 19 weeks.

The Knights produced the best season in program history in 2015. A school record 50 wins highlighted a campaign with 11 single-season records. UCF led the nation with a 0.93 ERA while boasting a .979 fielding percentage that ranked second in the nation in 2015. Making their national poll debut on Feb. 17, the Knights were ranked for 14 consecutive weeks. Reaching as high as No. 13, UCF finished the 2015 campaign at No. 16.

Junior Shelby Turnier and senior Mackenzie Audas finished the season ranked first and second in the nation as both recorded ERAs below 1.00. Turnier became the first NFCA All-American in program history, while Audas earned the first Capital One Academic All-America honors in school history.

Gillispie earned her second American Athletic Conference Coaching Staff of the Year accolades, while guiding Turnier to The American Pitcher of the Year and Jessica Ujvari to The American Player of the Year honors. A program-best seven Knights earned All-AAC First Team laurels, while six members of the squad earned NFCA All-Region recognition.

During the inaugural campaign of the American Athletic Conference, Gillispie led the Knights to the first regular-season championship and the program's fifth NCAA Tournament appearance. Recording her 700th career victory while leading UCF to a 43-18 overall record, she coached Farrah Sullivan to American Athletic Conference Player of the Year honors in 2014. A program-best 15 student-athletes were named to the American Athletic Conference All-Academic Team.

In 2012, the Knights made their fourth NCAA Tournament appearance after 10 wins over fellow NCAA Tournament opponents led to just the second at-large birth in program history.

Gillispie guided the Knights to their third appearance in the NCAA Tournament and their second appearance in the Conference USA Championship Game in 2010. The Black and Gold defeated No. 7 Alabama, No. 16 Tennessee and No. 22 Ohio State and earned the program's first at-large bid into the Regional Tournament.

Gillispie guided her squad to the program's first Conference USA Championship crown in 2008 with a victory at No. 9 Houston and fought its way to the NCAA Regional Championship game with a win over No. 1 Florida. The team's 49 wins on the season were the most in program history, while its 26 votes in the final NFCA Coaches Poll were its most tallies. Gillispie also posted her 500th career win in 2008.

The Black and Gold cruised through the C-USA Softball Championship with a 3-0 record to earn the league's automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament. Freshman Tiffany Lane earning tournament MVP honors, while Allison Kime, Breanne Javier, Marquita Council and Hillary Barrow joined her on the all-tournament team.

In 2005, Gillispie led the Knights to their first Atlantic Sun Tournament Championship and the team received the conference's automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament. The Knights picked up their first postseason win with a 5-3 victory at Florida. In the regular season, UCF picked up wins over three ranked opponents in addition to the program's first win over in-state rival Florida State. Stephanie Best was named A-Sun Player of the Year for the third-consecutive year after leading the nation in home runs (26).

Best was the first UCF softball player to be drafted by the National Pro Fastpitch league when the New England Rip-tide took her in the fourth round. She ended her career with a .384 batting average, .756 slugging percentage, 71 home runs, 285 hits, 216 runs scored and 213 RBI.

During the 2004 season, Gillispie earned her 100th win at UCF and the team finished the season with a 42-21 overall record.

In the 2003 season, Best was named A-Sun Player of the Year and was recognized by the NFCA on the all-south region team, while pitcher Dottie Cupp and Jania Shinhoster received A-Sun All-Conference honors.

During the inaugural season in 2002, the Black and Gold had a 46-19 record and posted a 21-game winning streak, setting an A-Sun record. Cupp and Shinhoster were named all-conference and all-region while Best earned all-conference.

To date, Gillispie's players have earned 62 all-conference honors, five conference player of the year awards, two conference pitchers of the year, two freshmen of the year honors and one co-newcomer of the year award. Four former Knights have also gone on to play in the NPF.

Academically, UCF has garnered 12 CoSIDA Academic All-District honors, ten C-USA All-Academic Team accolades, 90 league honor roll members and 17 academic medal recipients under Gillispie.

Prior to UCF, Gillispie spent four years building the Texas Tech program. She led the Red Raiders to a No. 17 national ranking in 1998 and a No. 24 ranking the following season. Her team earned runner-up honors at the 1999 NCAA Regional Championship.

In addition to her successful career at Texas Tech, Gillispie rebuilt softball programs at Bradley University and Joliet Junior College. In 1993, she took over the Bradley program that finished 12-25 in 1992 and in two short years posted a record-breaking 33-8 season. The 1994 team also finished in second place in the Missouri Valley Conference and was ranked fifth in the nation for winning percentage.

Gillispie received N4C Conference Coach of the Year honors as head coach of the 1992 Joliet (Ill.) Junior College team that won the conference championship. She had inherited a 2-29 team in 1991 and transformed that same team into an NJCAA Regional Runner-up with a 32-12 record by 1992.

In addition to coaching at the collegiate level, Gillispie has served as an international speaker for the Italian Softball and Baseball Federation Coaches Convention and also traveled to Athens, Greece as a guest coach for the Greek National Team in 2001.

While she directs her own softball camps and clinics, she has also worked as an instructor with the Griffey International Gold Medal Camp and Higher Ground Camps and Clinics under British National coach Bobby Simpson.

Gillispie began her playing career as a pitcher at Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where she pitched in two NJCAA National Championship Tournaments. In 1981, she was ranked ninth nationally as a NJCAA pitcher.

Moving on to West Texas A&M, she set nine career pitching records including most wins, most strikeouts and most saves.

In 2005, Gillispie was inducted into the West Texas A&M Athletics Hall of Fame.

CORRIE HILL

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH - FIRST SEASON

Corrie Hill was named as an assistant coach for the Knights in August 2016.

"Our coaching staff gains so much with the addition of Corrie," Gillispie said. "She adds tremendous experience after having helped lead Texas to two Women's College World Series and has worked with some extremely talented players. We are excited to welcome her to the UCF family."

Hill spent the past 11 seasons as the Assistant Softball Coach at Texas, helping the team to 11 consecutive post-season appearances and two Women's College World Series appearances. She coached over 50 All-Big 12 student-athletes, 14 NFCA All-Americans, and over 40 NFCA All-Region selections.

Prior to her stint at Texas, she served as the Head Softball Coach at the University of Texas at San Antonio for eight seasons. She coached the Roadrunners to a pair of conference championships, as well as four NFCA All-South Region performers, 10 First Team All-Conference choices and 22 All-Conference players.

Prior to her arrival at UTSA, Hill served as head coach and assistant general manager for the Durham Dragons of the Women's Pro Fastpitch League (WPFL). As coach, she led the Dragons to a third-place finish and touted the league's home run champion in Trish Reinhardt and the co-batting champion in Patty Raduenz. She also has the distinction of coaching in the first declared women's pro game when the Durham Dragons met the Virginia Roadsters.

Hill started her coaching career as an assistant at UT Arlington (1989-92) before serving as head coach at Southeastern Louisiana (1992-95). She compiled a 45-68-1 record while at SLU and produced eight all-conference players and three all-state performers. Hill also had a one-year stint as an assistant and pitching coach at Baylor during the 1995-96 season, when the school resurrected its program, before she headed to the pro league.

Hill played collegiate softball at Baylor and UT Arlington. She picked up team offensive player of the year honors while at Baylor before finishing her collegiate career at UTA after Baylor dropped its program. With the Mavericks, Hill helped lead UTA to the league crown and was named to the All-SLC first team and all-tournament team in 1989.

Coupled with the Southland Conference title she earned in 2004 as head coach at UTSA, Hill earned the distinction of being the only SLC coach to win a league crown as a player (UT Arlington in 1989) and coach.

Hill began her post-collegiate playing career in the ASA majors with the Lone Star Lady Lights in 1989. She then starred as a catcher and first baseman for the softball Coors Light Silver Bullets in 1990-92.

In addition to her coaching duties, Hill was a three-year member of the NCAA Midwest Regional committee (2001-03) and was a voter on the NFCA Coaches Top 25 (2002-03). Hill has also served on the Southland Conference Coaches Committee and was a member of the NFCA's Convention Committee and the Rules Committee of the WPFL. She is an accomplished speaker for National Sports Clinics, presenting on softball mechanics (1990-92, 2008-present).

A Fort Worth, Texas, native, Hill graduated from UTA in December 1991 with a degree in exercise and sport studies with a minor in speech.

TIFFANY JORDAN

Her primary responsibilities include working with the infielders and hitting.

In her first season at UCF, the Knights posted a .979 fielding percentage - the second-best mark in the nation. At the plate, the Black and Gold produced the highest batting average in program history at .292, and set a program record in on-base percentage (.364). UCF hit 39 home runs, in 2015 the fourth-most in a single season and the most since 2005. Kalyn Cenal became the first Knight to hit 10 or more home runs since the 2005 season as she finished with a team-best 11.

The UCF coaching staff repeated as The American Coaching Staff of the Year after leading the Knights to the first regular season and conference tournament championships in program history. The back-to-back conference champions made the first consecutive NCAA appearances in program history, finishing as the runner-up in the Tallahassee Regional.

Jordan joined the Knights in 2014 after seven seasons as an assistant coach at her alma mater Youngstown State, including the last four as the associate head coach. She returned to YSU in the fall of 2008 after a highly decorated playing career from 2003-06 and primarily worked with the outfielders and hitters.

During her tenure as associate head coach, Jordan recruited the 2014 Horizon League Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year and developed the 2012 Horizon League Player of the Year.

A four-time All-Horizon League selection, Jordan, formerly Tiffany Patteson, finished her career at YSU as the only player in school history to play more than 200 games, starting all 205. She also set career records in hits (231), at-bats (664), doubles (56), triples (18), walks (84) and runs scored (126).

The Guelph, Ontario, native was a silver medalist at the 2003 Pan American Games as a member of Team Canada. She also competed for Team Canada from 2003-05 at the Canadian Fastpitch International Championship and played in the 2003 Softball World Cup and the 2004 World University Games.

She married Shawn Jordan in January 2016.
